Pinelands on the High-Rise

PINELANDS creative workshop presents Anthony Hinkson's High-Rise.

The play, directed by Dorsie Boyce, will be staged at Parkinson Secondary School this afternoon, tomorrow Saturday 31, Sunday February 1, next Friday February 6, Saturday February 7 and Sunday February 8.

Box offices are located at Hole In The Wall, Philips Road, Pinelands and Dian's Canteen, Wildey.

Proceeds will go toward a cultural exchange tour to St. Vincent.

• THE education committee of the Democratic League of Women is hosting a seminar on "The Benefits of Insurance" tomorrow at 6 p.m. at the George Street Auditorium.

The topics to be discussed are: Life Insurance; Medical Insurance; National Insurance and General Insurance.

This seminar is designed to educate the members of the League and the Democratic Labour Party.

Minister responsible for National Insurance, Wes Hall, will deliver the opening remarks.

Members of the public are invited to attend.

• THE OFFICERS and members of Crickland Sports Club invite you to a fund-raising jam at their club house in Pie Corner, St. Lucy, tomorrow at 9 p.m.

Music will be supplied by St. Lucy's most popular D.J., Pitt Greaves.

Proceeds will be in aid of improving their club house.

• MEMBERS of St. Clements Anglican Church will host their annual supper tomorrow from 8 p.m.

A varied menu will be served and refreshments will be on sale.

• MEMBERS OF the Sargeants' Village Football Club will be holding a fund-raising fete in aid of a tour to Trinidad for Easter.

The fete will be held on Saturday February 14 at secretary Ricky Welch's residence in Vauxhall, Christ Church.

• JUST to remind you of the grand International Bazaar and Craft Fair coming off at Ilaro Court next Saturday from 1-6 p.m.

You will be treated with special performances by Director (Sousy) and other calypsonians. The Troubador Tuk Band, the Royal Barbados Police band and a visit from a volunteer band from the British ship H.M.S. Ark Royal.

Come and sample the delicious food and tea and buy crafts from India, Korea, United States, Great Britain, Trinidad, Guyana, Canada and Barbados.

Patrons will have an opportunity to view various kinds of art from renowned artists: from Ashanti Trotman and Onkphra, (fashion and craft); Pat Byers, (jewellery); fashion and soft furnishings by Anna and Derek Went and Peter and Cynthia Cave; outdoor gallery by the National Cultural Foundation; art work by the Barbados Arts Council; and Maggie Tainsh will sign limited edition prints from her drawing of Ilaro Court.
